Music played for us by Hilda
and on Sound – Denise

Pastoral

Pastoral. Good news from Pat Petley that Colin had recovered well for their journey home last week. And from Claire Webb that she is at last in much better health. Please give thanks for the healing of those who have been in difficult situations, and pray for others known to us who continue to need medical and spiritual help.

We also ask for a blessing on Martine as she enjoys a well-deserved break from duty during the next two weeks.

Epsom & Ewell Food Bank Update

The Trolley Push and stalls in Epsom were a great success in raising the profile of the charity and raised over £1,000.

There are supermarket collections planned soon and help is needed, if you could give an hour or two please contact the food bank on 8786 8221 or email epsomewell.foodbank.org.uk

Epsom, Kiln Lane Sainsburys on Sat June 8th OR Leatherhead Tesco July 5th & 6th.

For those who donate food we do NOT need any more Pasta, soup, tea, chopped tomatoes, baked beans or cereal at the moment. BUT we do need tinned vegetables, tinned & mashed potatoes, coffee, fruit juice, long life milk, and tinned puddings, individual toothbrushes, toothpaste, shower gel, men's and ladies deodorant and shampoo. Thank you for your continuing support.

I am delighted to report that a total of £1,123.98 was collected by Church members, compared with £947.89 last year. Yet again my sincere thanks to "the few" who gave of their time to collect, for the umpteenth time.

Jim Dunstone (C.A. Organiser for SMC)

Phil The Bag

We have just received a cheque from Phil the bag for our last collection which amounts to just over £100. Since we began we have raised nearly £300 for our unwanted textiles so keep on sorting.

Methodist Conference in London - July 2013

Conference Makers are needed to help welcome and direct people around the Conference areas:

- on 6th July, in and around Westminster
- on 7th July, at and around the Ordination Venues
- on 7th July, hosting the District Photography Exhibition at Central Hall Westminster (see below).

The title for the Exhibition is 'Methodism in London - our Story'. Judges will be looking particularly for photos that tell a story, representing something of the life of Methodism in our City today. The Competition is open to everyone in Methodist churches and circuits in the London District.

If you want to know more about being a Conference Maker or entering the Photography Exhibition, please contact the District Resource Centre on 020 7654 3850 or

Email: admin@methodistlondon.org.uk
