collection if you wish to donate, and please join us after the service for

Prayers

Please pray for David here with us this morning; also for Martine as she completes her final Services in our Circuit at Ruxley this morning and Christ Church this evening.

We ask for your blessing on those of our Church family in need of your help at this time, and for the continuing success of our local initiative 'Breathing Space'.

Our thoughts and prayers are also with those in France and Turkey who have been affected by the recent tragic events, and for Margaret and the team as they travel to Uganda next weekend.

Notices

Missing Table Cloths. Would you please check your cupboards, to see whether any Church table cloths may have been washed and stored with your own linen (two or three have been missing for some time).

Books - Martine very kindly donated some impressive books now surplus to her needs recently. There are displayed on the pew in the vestibule and are free to anyone who wishes to 'inherit' them.

Holiday Maintenance Once again we seem to have built up a significant list of work to be done around the premises and, as usual, we will work around known activities and bookings as best we can during the summer holiday. To do this successfully please let me know if you need to use the building or the car park at any time, however short, so we can avoid any conflicts.

Robin is away the last week of July so there will be no work then, but there are several things planned for the first week of August when only Conquest Art will be possible. In the following weeks there will be times when the kitchen is inaccessible, and minor work will be done both inside and outside the building before 6:00pm weekdays. If you find a 'No Entry' sign on a door then please do not enter - the reason will not always be obvious!

We should be all finished by September but hope you will appreciate that it will not always be possible to give exact dates/times for work - we have to work with our contractors as best we can. Denise

In case you missed it . . .

Rev Jeyapaul has sent an update on the sponsored girls to us – see the Church Notice Board for the letter and photographs.

MHA - the total of recent donations to the work of Methodist Homes was £93, £35 of which is Gift Aided and will increase the overall sum available to the charity. Thank you for your generosity. Geoff

Maintenance Closure – the Church Centre will be closed at times during August for planned maintenance until 6:00pm (Conquest Art will meet) – see the notices on the boards.
