Pastoral News

Patricia Cockrell's husband passed away in Epsom Hospital last Wednesday, 3rd August, after a lengthy illness. Patricia, although not a church member, attended SMC occasionally and is a member of 'Fellowship'. Patricia is in need of our prayers at this very sad time. In addition; she would appreciate contact from, and the support of, her SMC friends - particularly whilst 'Fellowship' is having its summer break. News from Pat Petley

Both Ruth and Richard are reported as home from hospital. We rejoice in this news.

Our congratulations go to Gloria's granddaughter, Amber, who has been awarded a coveted 'Blue Peter' badge. Her achievement is extra-special since her award was for completing a special project.

Please pray for Emma and Jabez (Nana) as they settle into the Manse this weekend.

Our thanks to those members from Ruxley and SMC who spruced it up in preparation for their arrival.

Daphne Easton is at home, but unable to get out and about. Daphne would be pleased to see any visitors who would like to pop in, but please phone her first. Pat Petley

Church Cleaning

Thank you all those who assisted in the Church Cleaning yesterday.

Junior Mission for All

JMA boxes need to be emptied ready for the end of the Methodist financial year. I would be very grateful if all collectors would give me their boxes to empty as soon as possible, either in church or drop them through my letter box at 36 Westways.

With many thanks for all your collecting.

Catherine
